

UK Rental Demand Assessment Checklist

1. Employment & Economic Strength

- Are there major employers nearby?
- Is the local unemployment rate low?
- Are new businesses or industries growing?
- Are there strong public sector employers?

2. Population & Demographics

- Is the population growing?
- Is there inward migration?
- Is the area popular with young professionals?
- Is there family, student, or retiree demand?

3. Affordability & Housing Market Conditions

- Are high house prices pushing people into renting?
- Are mortgage rates rising or high?
- Is renting cheaper than buying locally?
- Are there barriers to homeownership?

4. Transport & Connectivity

- Proximity to train or tram stations?
- Fast routes into job hubs?
- Reliable bus services?
- Convenient motorway access?

5. Local Amenities & Lifestyle

- Shops, cafes, supermarkets nearby?
- Good parks or leisure centres?
- Safe and well-maintained area?
- Good schools (family lets)?

6. Education & University Demand

- Is there a university nearby?
- Is student demand stable or growing?
- Are Article 4 restrictions present?

- Is the property near campuses?

7. Regeneration & Infrastructure Projects

- Major regeneration underway?
- Local council investment?
- Transport upgrades coming?
- New commercial or residential development?

8. Supply & Competition

- Is rental stock limited?
- Are there empty units in the market?
- Are rents rising annually?
- What is the average time on market?

9. Government Policy & Regulation

- Licensing schemes applicable?
- Article 4 restrictions?
- EPC compliance?
- Local housing benefit impact?

10. Property-Specific Factors

- Modern and energy-efficient?
- Tenant-desired features (parking, outdoor space)?
- Pet-friendly?
- Broadband suitable for remote work?
- Suitable layout for target tenants?